

2025 Trip Payment Plan & Fees

Get ready for an adventure with our budget-friendly trip plan! We've sliced and diced the expenses into easy, manageable payments. Just a heads up, though: payments to the airline, Visa, and travel insurance are like the first pit stops on our journey—once you're in, there's no turning back!

Got questions or want to share some excitement? We're all ears!

And hey, let's not forget the fun part: we're also on a mission to spice up our fundraising game! Join us in making some waves and raising funds for our project supplies. It's all about teamwork and having a blast along the way!
